

Information on the Registration Process

Congratulations on being accepted to be a member of community of excellence. Below is a list of important information that needs the utmost attention from all new students. The offer of admission is valid for the semester indicated in the offer letter, after which it will lapse without prior notice. Hence, students are strongly advised to confirm their acceptance, and register at the soonest time possible.

1. Acceptance and Registration Process

- (1) Universiti Malaya provides an online admission and registration process for new students. All new students who wish to join Universiti Malaya are required to accept the offer of admission within 14 days after receiving the letter of offer, and subsequently, self-enroll in the MAYA Portal at <https://maya.um.edu.my>
- (2) Students undertaking the coursework mode program must accept the offer, complete the self-enrolment process, and confirm course registration before the semester lectures begin.
- (3) Students who miss the registration deadline and/or wish to extend the validity of the admission offer, must request for a deferment from their respective Deans. A deferment approval must be obtained before the student is allowed to register in the following semester.
- (4) The number of lecture weeks is displayed on the Academic Calendar available at <https://masd.um.edu.my/academic-calendar>
- (5) Click HERE for guidelines on the Acceptance and Self-Enrolment process.

- (6) Students are advised to pay attention to all the important dates pertaining to the acceptance and registration process including the self-enrollment process, the course registration process, the payment of admission fee and the confirmation of registration processes posted at <https://maya.um.edu.my>. Failure to adhere to the stipulated dates will affect the registration process. Click HERE for guidelines on the Module (Course Registration).
- (7) Kad Prihatin Siswa (KPS) is the student matric card of the Universiti Malaya, serving the following purposes:
 - (a) Verification card.
 - (b) Access to Library, Sports Centre, and UM; and
 - (c) UM bus transportation.

KPS also functions as a debit card (MySiswa Debit Card-i) with RHB Bank, the official bank of the Universiti Malaya.

Therefore, you are REQUIRED to open an I-Pro RHB Savings account at any RHB Bank branch throughout Malaysia. All scholarship/loan/assistance/Government incentive payments or refunds by the Universiti Malaya (if any) will be processed through the student's bank account.

The procedure for opening an I-Pro Savings account can be referred to at this link: (Malay Version/English Version).
